

THE ECHO

of 1944

INTRODUCING THE GREMLIN
WHO CAUSES THE HEADACHES OF ALL ECHO EDITORS

Since the first Echo was made, there has been an Imp around the office, getting into the hair of various Echo editors. Through the efforts of the '44 staff photographer and his candid camera we were able to secure the shots of this little Scamp shown in this book. Upon his broad (?) shoulders belong all the mistakes of any Echo present and past.

Ensign Clyde Bass, a graduate of 1941, killed in Solomons, July 25, 1943.

Aerial Radioman 2/c Gerald David Hall, a former student, killed near Coronado, Calif.

Second Lieutenant George Walter Johnson, a graduate of 1938, killed in the Pacific, July, 1943.

Second Lieutenant Karl W. Kumm, a former student, killed in Tunisia, April, 1943.

T. M. 3/c Howard McGilton, a former student, missing in action, December, 1943.

Lieutenant John Robert Shores, a former student, reported missing in Mediterranean area.

Lieutenant (j.g.) Frederick Burton Sleyster, a graduate of 1941, missing in Solomons, May, 1943.

Sergeant Mark Wayne Steen, a former student, missing in North Africa in April, 1943.

Arlington Vieth, a graduate of 1936, missing in action September, 1943.

Chief Pharmacist James Russell Rowland, a former student, killed at Bougainville, November 8, 1943.

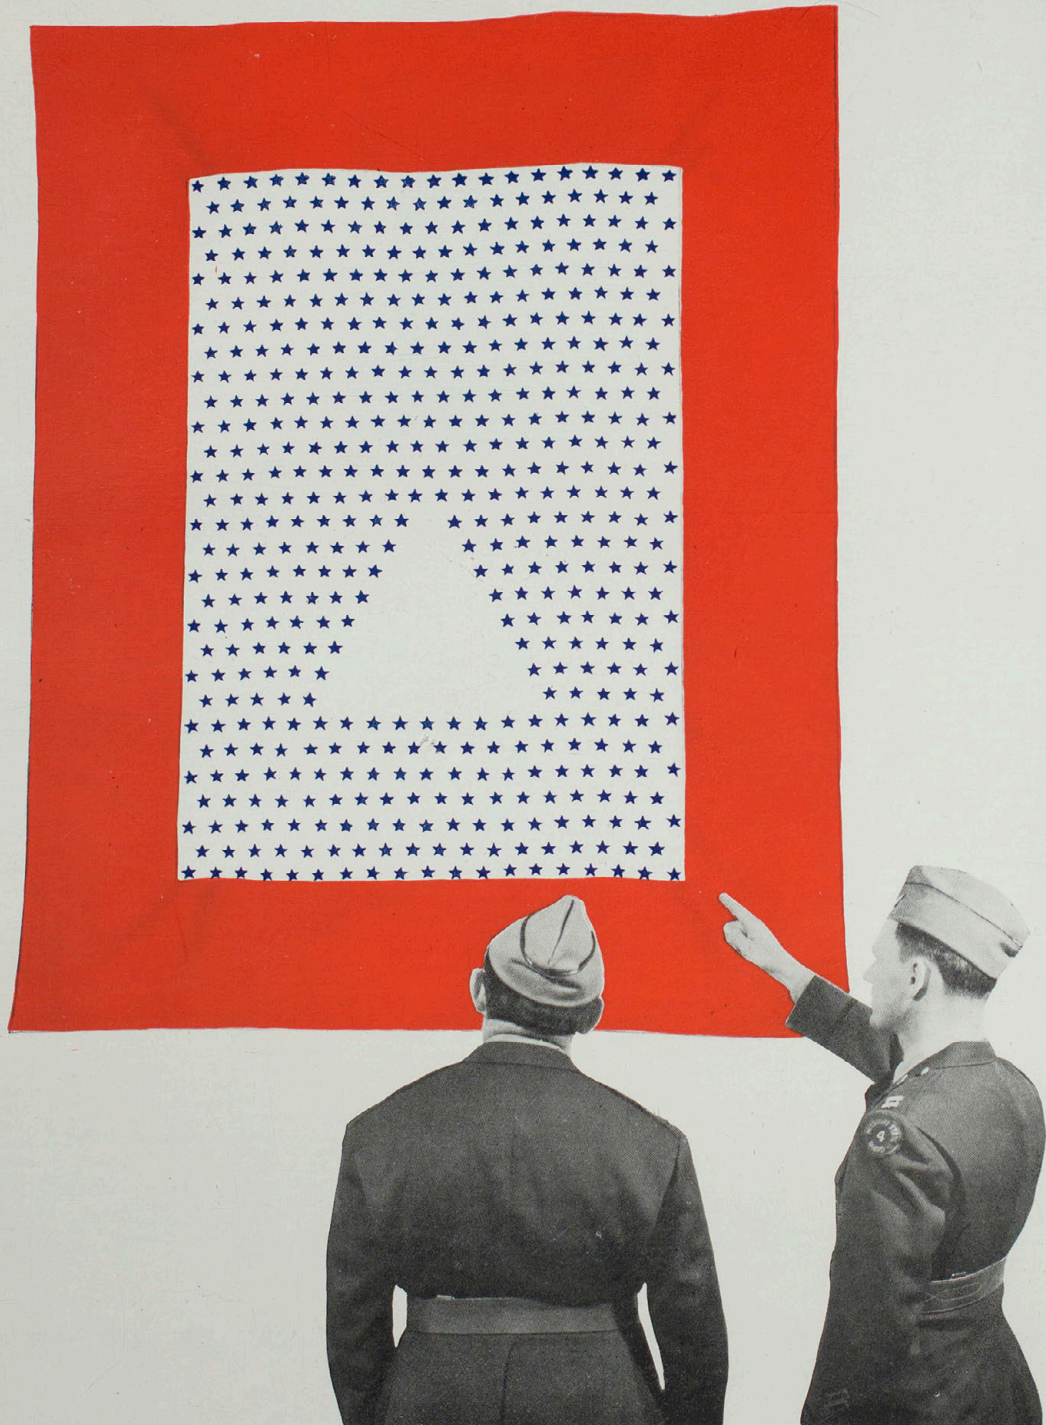

Mrs. Anna Barnett Barth, graduate of 1924, died May 14, 1943.

And other persons of whose loss we may not have been informed.

DEDICATED TO...

Those whom we must represent by gold stars on our service flag. May their number ever remain small. They made the supreme sacrifice that we may continue to benefit from such institutions as ours.

Even considering all the grand times enjoyed at our various functions, Pete the Gremlin is the one who really has the fun. Have you ever been kicked or bumped at a dance? Blame no one but that little Imp. He also presses the wrong keys in the orchestra, causing all the sour notes. He spills your ice cream at the teas, runs off with the song books in assembly, and turns off the heat in classrooms in the middle of winter. In fact, college would be a snap without him, but it wouldn't be any fun.

ORGANIZATIONS

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

A new house across from the Stop 'n Shop started the school year off right for Alpha Sigma Alpha. Later on, our red and white sweaters were a familiar sight on the campus . . . Gypsies in gay skirts and glittering ear rings . . . soft lights and a glowing campfire . . . all combined to characterize the traditional Gypsy Dance which marked the beginning of rush season.

The dance was followed by a super progressive luncheon and thirteen cute rushees became Alphas. This event was celebrated with a dinner party at the home of an alumna, Miss Martha Rinehart . . . The pledges entertained the actives and the Army Air Corps men stationed on the campus with a "Country School Jamboree." An old-fashioned box supper was held during recess and gaily wrapped boxes of food were auctioned off to the highest bidder.

At the Student Council Carnival in January, the Alpha Sigmas set up a Gypsy fortune-telling booth. Under the spell of candlelight and an eerie atmosphere the Alpha Gypsies revealed many interesting fortunes . . . Other high-lights of the year included the Christmas party, the Valentine party, and the annual Founders Day tea at the home of our sponsor, Miss Alma Zoller . . . And, naturally, we're pleased as punch to have won the scholarship cup for the year '43-'44!

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Delta Sigma Epsilon began the 1943-44 school year with their rush season. The first event was a coffee, and the concluding function was the Candyland Dance in Women's Gym . . . decorations were gay—candy sticks, lollipops, with tall glasses of lemonade lining the walls which were draped with crepe paper . . . our pledges, which numbered seven, entertained the actives and sponsor with a chili supper at the new sorority house.

Christmas season was shown in the chapter room with a beautifully decorated tree and a manger scene . . . our Christmas party was a banquet, followed by an exchange of gifts . . . after the first of the year, three banquets were held by Delta Sigma—two of these followed initiation honoring those initiated . . . the third was in recognition of our Founder's Day.

The latest news of Delta Sigma concerned the addition of our sign at the new house—we were certainly a proud bunch of girls when the sign lighted the front of the chapter house . . . and so we close the school year with a brief resume of what took place in Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority . . . we're all looking forward to another successful year in 1944-45.

Viva Lee Cooley, Secretary; Betty Ann Drakes, president; Miss Lucy Simmons, sponsor; Georgia Warner, Bernice Schott, treasurer; Jennifer Warnock, Gloria Duncan, Marjorie Kanouse, Mary Shuey, Maride Arnold, Erlene Peterson, Mary Lou McClanahan, vice-president.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

Another grand year in Pi Kappa Sigma . . . 1943-'44 found the Pi Kaps rolling merrily along . . . Yes, with the first rush party held in Science Hall . . . a U. S. O. center, with Red Cross nurses serving punch, dancing, soft lights, and music, all adding up to a wonderful time.

Then the next party, a dinner at the Masonic Temple with airplanes, hangars, beacon lights and runways decorating the tables. Alumna Ruth Curtis entertained with some favorite readings and the evening ended by singing Pi Kap songs . . . Founder's Day found the Pi Kaps together celebrating with a spaghetti supper and all the trimmings.

Then the annual Christmas party with its contribution for a war bond . . . Mrs. C. P. Neidig, our national president, honored us with a visit which was helpful and inspiring . . . a fine year indeed, and Pi Kappa Sigma is looking forward to many more happy ones to follow.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

Tri Sigma came smiling through this year with the largest membership of any social organization on the campus . . . rushing season started with two swell parties, a Hobo party complete with red and blue bandanas and old clothes, and a banquet at the Travelers with corsages for the rushees . . . result, twenty new pledges.

Mu Chapter was visited by Mrs. Idabell Daudell, our national secretary . . . pledges gave a lush Valentine dance for the actives in Sociability Hall on the evening of February 12 . . . election time again, and the Tri Sigmas took an active part in boosting for the Progressive Party.

Spring came, and everyone was neck-deep in rummage sales and the annual Founder's Day celebration . . . Martha Thoeke elected president to keep up the good work during the coming school year.

Louise Lansdale, vice-president; Mary Violet Martin, Margaret Ruhwedel, Mildred Ann Cornwell, president; Miss Viola Magee, sponsor; Hortense Ague, corresponding secretary; Martha Thoeke, treasurer; Mary Margaret O'Connor, Ann Dunbar, Julianne Stryker, Lois Dronnan, recording secretary; Carol Ashby, Mary Evelyn Thurman, Nadine Robinson, Geraldine Hunter, Julie Maddox, Maxine Mitchell, Marion Ridgway, Beth Dougherty, Joan Trefiletti, Helen Mitchell, Betty Graubner, Betty Anne Eggert, Doris Gardner, Nancy Roy, Eleanor Thomas, Elaine Carroll, Jayne Glaze, Bernice Stoops, Charlotte Haley, Mary Frances Ruhwedel, Marjorie Miller, Jean Young.

Mr. Barnett and Mr. Shain, sponsors; Gene Andereck, president; Erle Trunnell, vice-president; Bob Steinbach, secretary-treasurer; Bob Moore, corresponding secretary; Francis Himmelburg, conductor; Lilburn Via, sentinel, Leslie Shelton.

PHI SIGMA EPSILON

Activities started out for Gamma Chapter with rush functions and the gain of six new members . . . An excellent chili supper at the home of Mr. Rothschild with Bill and Bob, Mrs. Rothschild, Mr. Stroup and Mr. Ziegel as guests . . . more rush functions.

Breakfast at the Manhattan for actives and attractive guests . . . Fun house at the carnival which proved to be very successful . . . Banquet with alumni at the Traveler's for members Trunnell and Via who departed for the service of their country . . . Party with the old Phi Sig spirit at the home of Sponsor Otho Barnett for alumni home on furlough.

Glad to welcome such faces as Struby, Bonta, Heying, Yowell, Bill and Bob Rothschild, Deskin, and Montgomery . . . Contribution to the Red Cross . . . Four members lost—two graduated; two serving in the Armed Forces . . . Fraternity election, Bob Steinbach, P. S. E. president, 1944-45 . . . Gamma Chapter is proud of her men in service and it is for them and the future success of our brotherhood that we are striving to uphold the living spirit of our beloved fraternity.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA

Two active members started the fall quarter . . . they worked hard . . . result, six members for the fall quarter . . . they worked hard . . . result, twelve members for the winter quarter.

Incidentally, we skunked the opposition, obtaining six pledges from six available rushees . . . With twelve members we got things done . . . spit-toons, six shooters and beautiful women at our "Forty-Niner" dance . . . lots of good food and lots of rare stories at our banquet . . . the "Sig Tau Side-show" and the "Three Old Maids" skit were a hit at the all-school carnival.

Spring election with plenty of Tau pressure from behind scenes . . . plans made for the fall rush—won't be many rushers nor rushees, but you can bet there'll be some action . . . you can be sure there'll be a Beta chapter on hand to welcome our Army, Navy, and Marine Taus back.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

Henderson, corres.sec.; Cornwell, pres.; Drakes, rec. sec.; La Frenz, treas.; Dye, Boise, Lansdale, Tholke, McDuffee, Cooley, Timson, Warner; Mrs. S. H. Ellison, sponsor.

Osborn, treasurer; Timson, president; Agee, vice president; Grossmann, secretary; Hidalgo, Horn, Miss Simons and Miss Wade, sponsors; Mitchell, Cornwell, Richardson, Brown, Magruder, Drennan, Anthony, Green, McDuffee, Huelsman, Thomas, Fahrner, Gardner, Ledford.

CARDINAL KEY

Three representatives from each of the four sororities, namely, the president, vice-president, and one other representative elected by the sorority compose the Pan Hellenic Council. Serving as a governing body, the council directs the combined activities of the sororities. Mrs. S. H. Ellison is sponsor.

Following supervision of a peppy rush season, the council settled down to the usual business, such as planning the annual formal dinner. At this dinner the scholarship trophy is awarded to the sorority having the highest record for the last three quarters. The annual spring dance was not held this year.

CARDINAL KEY

Cardinal Key is a national honor service organization for women. Requirements for membership are outstanding qualities in Leadership, Scholarship, Participation in school activities and Character.

This year's activities were numerous and were highlighted by a tea and initiation for the fall quarter at Mrs. C. W. Martins . . . Open house on enrollment day of the winter quarter with games, dancing and candy . . . Misses Wade and Slemons were hostesses at a Christmas Tea for active and former members . . . Adopted a needy family at Christmas . . . Sent Christmas Greetings to all former Cardinal Key girls . . . sponsored the check room at the all School Carnival in January . . . Initiation for four new members at Miss Wade's apartment in winter quarter . . . Soliciting the student body in the Red Cross drive . . . Another initiation . . . Presented two scholarships during the spring quarter.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Kappa Delta Pi is an honorary professional fraternity. The year started with an initiation banquet, with a music theme. Prof. J. W. Biggerstaff gave a talk on the life of the composer, Grieg, whose anniversary came this year. The quarter's programs were completed with book reviews . . .

The highlight of the winter quarter was the initiation banquet and its patriotic theme. Miss Ethel Hook was the guest speaker with a talk on Lincoln.

The "Faculty Row" stunt at the all school carnival gave heart trouble to several members of the faculty. The spring quarter initiation banquet wound up another successful year.

ELLEN H. RICHARDS CLUB

The Ellen H. Richards Club once more "went over the top" by having all the stars sewed on the service flag by Armistice Day . . . our headache now is to find room for several hundred more stars as the names of new soldiers and sailors come rolling in . . . our Christmas party at Miss MaGee's home had the traditional charade stunts, Christmas story and presents . . . Miss MaGee entertained seniors for the winter, spring, and summer quarters at her home . . . in March six seniors, Miss MaGee and Miss Kennedy went to Macon to attend a district conference which was very helpful for those who will soon be struggling with problems of their own in the teaching profession . . . our department this year is outstanding by having the largest number of seniors of any department on the campus.

PI OMEGA PI

First initiation of the year with Doris remembering only the grilled cheese sandwiches . . . Important commercial questions went unanswered as usual . . . Motion pictures of shorthand writers . . . Ruth and Miss Roberts journey through book reviews . . . Christmas party with Mrs. Summers . . . carols and they stayed rather late . . . Laura Jean backed through our second initiation service . . . party for high school commercial students . . . the wonderful play . . . man-power shortage plus the cigar . . . some one ate some doughnuts before the party started . . . People who don't attend meetings get elected to offices . . . a party for ourselves.

A. C. E.

The Association for Childhood Education has as its initial purpose the raising of standards of the professional training of teachers and leaders in the field of the education of young children. Miss Willie Whitson, our sponsor, went to Chicago University for the year . . . Mrs. Brown, from Greenwood School, did some excellent pinch-hitting . . . Highlights of the year . . . Bingo stand at the All School Carnival with Pi Omega Pi and Historical Society . . . programs presented by Miss Straight, Dr. Allen, Mr. Valentine and Miss Beggs . . . teas at some of the monthly meetings.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

Man shortage so we let a girl join for the first time . . . some girls called it hoarding so this spring three other girls became members—(Maxine Mitchell, Hortense Agee, and Mary Margaret O'Conner) . . . Here's why we've had fun . . . a picnic at Ownbey's last fall . . . sponsoring an all-school dance, lots of work but the fraternity pledges helped . . . a women's style show for the All School Carnival, some would rather forget that . . . we lost a lot of boys and Instructor Ralph Shain but we had good programs and marvelous times.

NEMO STAMP CLUB

Costa Rican stamps discussed by our expert, Maria, with a Costa Rican stamp for each member highlighted the programs of the club. During the year all members of the Stamp Club discussed and exhibited their most interesting stamp or issue of stamps . . . For the carnival program the Stamp Club cooperated with the Modern Literature Club in "The Eleventh Hour," a take-off on the Current Affairs Class . . . Packets of stamps were sent to Halloran Hospital, Staten Island, in response to a request for aid in readjustment of wounded soldiers.

MODERN LITERATURE CLUB

This club was organized in 1939 by a group of students interested in modern prose and poetry. On the first and third Monday evenings at the home of Dr. John Hollenbach, meetings were held with interest at a high pitch despite the dip in the membership. Book reviews of all the late ones, brief sketches of their authors. Penny quizzes that were harder than a Current Affairs test. A prize given to the winner and refreshments for all including the losers.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Historical Society is the oldest organization on the campus and its members include names of many leaders on the campus—faculty and students . . . The year's programs featured book reviews, educational movies and discussion groups with Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Jayne and Mr. Hawk as guests . . . Highlight of the year was the Annual Banquet held in February with Dr. Hartman as guest speaker.

BAND

"Carry on as Usual" has been the motto of the band this year. There has been no lack of interest and enthusiasm of the band members . . . the enrollment has had a higher percentage of the student body participating than in any other year . . . Needless to say, the male sections were conspicuous by their absence . . . the instrumentation has been complete and well balanced, enabling the band to play the usual high quality music and to maintain its musical standards of the past . . . The reading of new material that will be useful to the high school band director has been one of the principle projects of the year . . . An assembly program was presented to the student body, at which time the first movement of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony with it V . . . —for victory theme was the featured number.

CHORUS

In spite of adverse conditions, the chorus has had a bang up year. The singing of Christmas Carols at the faculty sponsored Christmas Tea was one of the highlights of the year. Another was the singing of the National Hymn of Costa Rica at the assembly arranged in honor of our good-will student from Costa Rica, Maria Elena Hidalgo.

The chorus acted as the spark plug for one of Prof. R. E. Valentine's most successful group singing programs in assembly. The Boys' Sextette sang at the night meeting sponsored by the College Inter-denominational Council With Bernice Schott as accompanist and Mr. Valentine wielding the baton, the meetings at four p. m. on Mondays and Wednesdays are regular pep rallies for those interested in singing, sight reading and all that goes with chorus work.

ART CLUB

ALPHA PHI SIGMA

Alpha Chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma, which was established on this campus in 1930, is composed of valedictorians and salutatorians of high school graduating classes and other students who maintain a high scholastic standard . . . several initiations were held for the different degrees . . . ice cream, cookies, and pop served at meetings . . . took trip through the museum . . . Miss Wade presented the Christmas program . . . had such other interesting speakers as the Rev. Charles Wilson, Dr. Burroughs, and Miss MaGee . . . several members received Master's Degrees . . . each year Alpha Phi Sigma awards a scholarship to the outstanding sophomore student . . . contributed in Red Cross drive . . . discovered our missing charter . . . owe our sponsor, Mr. Richardson, a note of thanks for guiding us through a trying year . . . large membership was practically all girls . . . by far the largest turnout was when the Echo picture was snapped.

HONORARY ART CLUB

Small but mighty! . . . and have we had fun! . . . Beautiful Christmas Dance . . . Everyone including the soldiers admired the "decorations" . . . Christmas party . . . games, refreshments, prizes and presents (both practical and ridiculous) . . . Miss Cornett gave us a lovely dinner Ummmmm! . . . We lost our president to Junior High but she's still an active member.

Mrs. Keen, our former sponsor, remembered us at Christmas with a gift from California . . . Those letters to and from our former members in service keep up morale on both sides . . . Two former art club members, Elaine Gillum Eitel and Dorothy Daily Maffry, are once again active members . . . Remember that long line leading to the Art Club Silly-Ette Booth at the All School Carnival . . . the results can now be admired in our Coeds rooms . . .

See for yourself . . . The osteopaths know us by the hours we spent tinting their "Physicians Prayers" . . . That wonderful party given by Mrs. Harry Laughlin in her beautiful home was sincerely appreciated . . . AND the envy of the school, those delightful weekly refreshments that taste as good as they look . . . A year we'll always enjoy remembering.

AEOLIAN CLUB

The Aeolian Club is one of the newest organizations on the campus being only two years old. Requirements for membership according to the Constitution are high and the applicant must be a music major or minor . . . However, this year the club has been open to all those interested in music . . . the club has one business and one social meeting a month . . . the objectives are to promote interest and appreciation of music and to discuss problems confronting public school music.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

The purpose of the Interfraternity Council is to keep the relations between the two fraternities friendly and cooperative. Rules for rushing and pledging and plans for interfraternity dances are subjects taken up in the monthly meetings. The president and one other member of each fraternity are members of the council. Besides these four there are the sponsors of each fraternity and the faculty adviser, who must not be an alumnus of either organization. Dr. John Hollenbach is the Interfraternity Council adviser and head.

METHODIST YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

This group was organized in 1941 with the ideal of furnishing Christian services for those students so inclined. In spite of the armed service demand on our membership, the old spirit was there and the meetings and parties were well attended. We learned to square dance and went on a progressive supper. We haven't decided yet which is the hardest on our under pinnings.

CHRISTIAN YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

Christian Youth Fellowship is the young peoples' organization of the First Christian Church. This group plans and presents the Vesper services held each Sunday evening from five until six . . . C. Y. F. starred features of the year . . . two parties at Drennan's farm, one when Jack was home; the other a hayride (Mitzi broke the wagon) . . . a banquet at Mary Violet's house in honor of Kyle and Wilma. Also David, who left for the army . . . a sleighride with comic valentines and frozen fingers . . . and then every Sunday night food and lots of ping pong.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

ROMANCE LANGUAGE CLUB

Le Cercle Francais, an organization composed of students from the French classes, has given way to the new Romance Language Club, composed of groups of students who are studying or have studied either French or Spanish. This new club holds meetings the first and third Thursdays of each month. At that time either a business meeting is conducted in one of the two languages or a program is given by one of the groups.

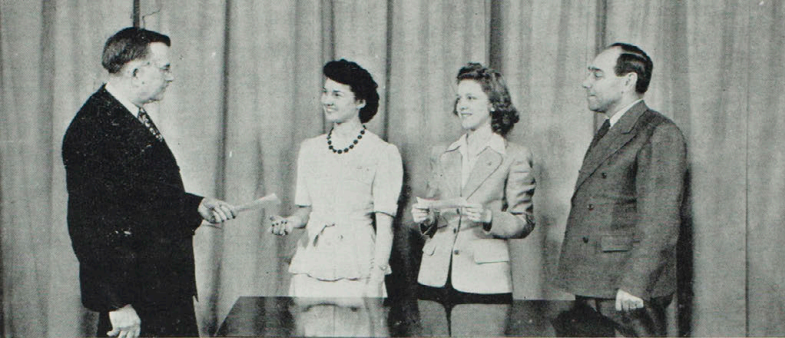

As was the custom of Le Cercle Francais, a Christmas party was held this year at the home of Miss Nan E. Wade, sponsor. The second party of the year was held at the home of Dorothy Holcomb, a member of the French group, to celebrate St. Valentine's Day. At that time, a program was given and French and Spanish songs were sung.

The Romance Language Club was organized last September by members of the French classes and those students taking Spanish which was recently added to the college curriculum.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Women's Athletic Association is an organization that develops sportsmanship and athletic interests among college women. Volley ball tournament in fall quarter was won by the graduates . . . Delicious refreshments at the meetings . . . wiener roast at Brashear park . . . good food and harmonious singing . . . several bowling parties, a few spares and still less strikes—backaches too . . . Long hikes in the country—tired legs . . . badminton tournament in winter quarter—Leanna Moore and Alene Layman were the winners . . . Contribution to the Red Cross . . . Leanna Moore received a "K" for high points . . . dart game at the Carnival . . . baseball tournament in the spring quarter . . . doughnuts and cocoa . . . under the sponsorship of Dr. Sue Grassle, we had a really enjoyable year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Marjorie finds the correct pages in her secretary's book; Viva Lee, puzzling over a column of figures, murmurs with a glow of surprise, "But we have two dollars more than we had last week!"; Mildred Ann and Gene engaged in a verbal toss-and-catch; when Hortense suggests an open house Alene and Mary Margaret, sighing resignedly, say with one accord, "But there aren't any men!"; Pansy and Calista in a huddle; Gregory and Lyle smiling comfortably over a remark intended for only the two of them; Mr. Heyd looking on the scene with a resigned smile; and with her notebook before her, the borders already well-decorated with doodling, Margaret says hopefully, "The meeting will now come to order" . . . and another Student Council meeting begins.

Several occasions invoke pleasant memories of a year full of activities. For example: The Christmas Dance—soft colored lights, shining stars, festoons of greenery, white Christmas trees, gay formals and uniforms . . . The Carnival—shrieks from the haunted house; the freak show barker; laughter and noise; the eight-act stage show with its prize winning "All Star Musical Revue" . . . The Spring Formal for the Echo Queen's coronation . . . The revision and printing of the constitution . . . The halloween party . . . All-school dances, class teas, open houses, and all-school shows filled in a busy and memorable year.

Even the faculty has to put up with the treacherous little scamp. There'd be nothing to this teaching if it weren't for Pete lurking in the background. He's the one that asks all the questions that can't be answered. He messes up all the blackboards and leaves them for the next class. He borrows the text books off the desk and forgets (?) to put them back. It is he that makes the professorial salary an earned one, but at the same time presents a gray hair for every dollar on the check.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

PRESIDENT

President Walter H. Ryle, in his seventh year of administration, is meeting the problems of a college at war with determination for better teacher training. It is his belief that teachers should have an understanding and appreciation of the world in which they live and a fine command of techniques essential to the teaching of others.

President Ryle and Margaret Richardson, President of the Student Council.
The President at Home.

BOARD OF REGENTS

Beginning at the top in Teachers College administration, we find the Board of Regents, composed of six members from various parts of this district. Their job includes employing teachers, publishing bids for work on the campus and signing the contracts.

The policies and activities of the Teachers College are to a large extent decided upon by the Board in their quarterly meetings. The state superintendent of schools is an ex-officio member of the board.

Dean Eubank

DEAN OF FACULTY

Dr. L. A. Eubank, dean of the faculty and head of the Division of Education, is probably the busiest man on the campus. His duties include arranging assembly programs, supervising the granting of credits, giving out of information about students to employers, and the arranging of class schedules and college curricula.

Dean Ellison

DEAN OF WOMEN

Mrs. S. H. Ellison has dean of women, director of freshman orientation program, and sponsor of the Pan-Hellenic Council as just a few of her many titles. Her office is probably the most used on the campus. There is no student activity that does not need some advice and the official sanction of the dean of women. Her work is correlated with other activities of the Division of Personnel Service.

HEADS OF DIVISIONS

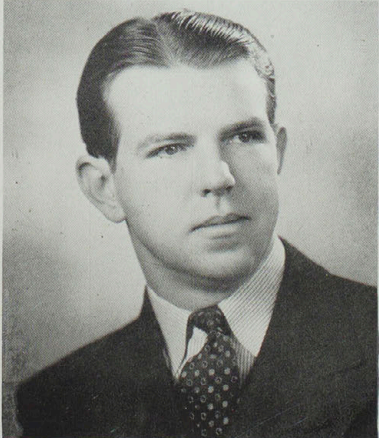

Prof. Stanley Hayden is head of the Division of Personnel Service. This is the department of the college which aids the students in making social, educational, and vocational adjustments. Through the Bureau of Guidance the division deals with these personal problems and relationships of the students.

Prof. J. T. Angus heads the Division of Extension Service. This division deals with public relations. It includes the Bureau of Field Service, Bureau of Correspondence and Extension Teaching, Bureau of Placements, and the Bureau of Alumni Service. This year, for the first time, extension courses were held on the campus.

Henry L. Enochs directs the Division of Business Service. This division is responsible for administering funds of the Teachers College. It sees to the maintenance of the college, handles all disbursements of the school, and administers the Student Memorial Fund.

You'll always find Pete hanging around the halls, for he must have his fun! He sets the clock ahead at eight o'clock and then puts it back just before twelve. He'll trip you on your way to your eight o'clock and then throw sand in your eyes after you get there. It is he that upsets the law of averages when you guess in Current Affairs. He also polishes up those slick spots on the sidewalks in the winter. He even mixes up the hours of the seniors so that they have two times what it takes to graduate and only half enough for their major.

Who could do a better job of crowning a queen than Pete the Gremlin? It took a lot of coaxing to get him to do the job, then a lot of threatening to make him behave. At that, upon receiving that juicy wink that you notice on the opposite page, the editor promptly fainted and the business manager not only turned grayer, but lost twelve more hairs by actual count. If you notice an old gray-haired couple tottering around the campus on crutches and canes, that, my friends, is all that is left of the Echo editor and business manager.

PAUL HENREID

March 23, 1944.

Dear Miss Brown:

I received the photographs yesterday, and hasten to return my choice to you.

It was very difficult to choose the queen for the yearbook, but after careful deliberation, I finally came to the conclusion, and decided on Miss Louise Lane-dale.

Wishing you further success with your yearbook.

I remain,

Cordially yours,

Paul Henreid

WAR TRAINING SERVICE

As a part of the country's all-out war effort, Kirk Auditorium was turned over to the United States government to house groups of men from the Army Air Forces, who have been stationed here while receiving ground school training and flight instruction at the Kirksville Airport.

The WTS school in connection with the Teachers College was changed in September from its previous civilian status to one of military rank.

Ground school training on the campus was under the general direction of Otho Barnett, co-ordinator, Dr. John Hollenbach, Dr. P. O. Selby, Carl Noble, Norvell C. Allen, and Ralph Shain. Students received instruction in aerial navigation, including computer, dead reckoning and radio, applied meteorology, course plotting and flight planning, engines, engines aircraft and instruments.

Senorita Maria Elena Hidalgo arrived in Kirksville from Alajuela, Costa Rica, January 3, 1943. She came as a good will student to the United States through a scholarship plan under the auspices of the Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs and the Institute of International Education. She was an honor graduate of the high school at Alajuela and later attended for two years the national university of Costa Rica at San Jose. She is the oldest in a family of five children. Both her parents are living. Her father, educated for the bar, owns and operates a large coffee plantation.

As Senorita Hidalgo had studied English in her native land, she needed only practice in conversation to make her proficient in the use of our language. Her desire to adjust herself to our American life and to be one of us has endeared her to us all. She is an enthusiastic participant in various activities on the campus where she is affectionately known as "Maria".

INDEX AND ECHO

The Index and the Echo, two official publications of the Teachers College student body, are published by the newswriting classes and Echo Staff chosen by a faculty committee. Miss Agnes Slemons is adviser for both publications.

THANK YOU

During a year beset with priorities, inductees and just plain headaches, we must confess that we couldn't have made it without the guidance and assistance of those not on the staff. To these persons we say thank you.

Miss Agnes Slemons, adviser.

Mr. Clifton Cornwell, Sr., our Staff Photographer and Director of Bureau of Alumni.

Mr. F. N. Ropkey, Manager school publications, The Indianapolis Engraving Company.

Mr. J. W. Patterson, Huston-Patterson Corporation, Printers.

Alexander's Studio, Photographer.

Mr. Paul Henreid, Warner Bros. star, who selected our queen.

Miss Hortense Agee, Staff Artist.

And thanks also to the following persons who helped with our copy:

Dorothy Holcomb, Mildred Ann Cornwell, Bob Steinbach, Hortense Agee, Lorraine Gillum, Dolly Creamer, Lois Drennan, Betty Drakes, Barbara Henderson, Marion Ridgway, Lyle Burroughs, Margaret Richardson, Patricia King, Calista Thomas, Miss Nan E. Wade, Pansy Ewing, Prof. Karl Webb.
